

SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60s

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

SHOW # K823-13: AIRDATE SEPTEMBER 25 & 26, 1982

HOSTED BY GARY OWENS

JAY BLACK recalls his years as lead singer of Jay & the Americans. The group had several top ten hits during the 60s including "Cara Mia" and "Come a Little Bit Closer."

PETER MAX was an obscure artist who quickly became a cultural phenomenon with his images plastered on posters around the world. PETER MAX explains how he developed the artistic style that mirrored the 60s lifestyle.

We'll take a special look at "PET SOUNDS," one of the Beach Boys' most distinctive albums. In the early 60s the Beach Boys were known for songs about surf, sun and fun but in 1966 they released "PET SOUNDS" which took an introspective look at life and love that was combined with elaborate production previously unknown to the group. Hits off the album included "Wouldn't It Be Nice," "Sloop John B." and "God Only Knows." We'll also focus on the last week of SEPTEMBER 1969, thirteen years ago, when Princeton University admitted women students for the first time in its 222-year history!

As always with each show, the GREAT MOVIE THEMES OF THE DECADE and our listeners talk about their favorite memories of the 60s.
