

SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60s

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Show #K831-10 Airdate: March 5/6, 1983

Hosted by Gary Owens

PETER NOONE of Herman's Hermits talks about how it felt to have tremendous success at such a young age. Herman's Hermits sold more than seventeen million records by 1968 with giant hits like "I'm Into Something Good," "Can't You Hear My Heart Beat," "Silhouettes," "Mrs. Brown You've Got a Lovely Daughter" and "I'm Henry the Eighth I Am." After more than a dozen successful singles, the group released "There's a Kind of Hush," yet another million seller.

JERRY MATHERS, better known as Beaver Cleaver of "Leave It To Beaver," recalls his experiences as the child star of the television series that aired from October 1957 to September 1963.

We'll take a SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60s look at the career of JAY & THE AMERICANS--a group that scored big hits with "She Cried," "Only In America," "Come a Little Bit Closer" and "Walkin' in the Rain." Additionally, "This Magic Moment" from 1969 passed the million selling mark, thus becoming the group's first gold record.

Also, we'll journey back to 1967 to look at the events that were headlining the news during the second week of March. We'll hear the top songs in the country during that week, sixteen years ago. And as always with each show, Great Movie Themes of the Decade and our listeners talk about their favorite memories of the 60s.
