

SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60s

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Show #K832-1 Airdate: April 2/3, 1983

Hosted by Gary Owens

LAMONT DOZIER, a part of the songwriting team of Holland-Dozier-Holland, is largely responsible for what has become known as the Motown sound. Lamont remembers the good old days at Motown, where everyone learned while they earned. Holland-Dozier-Holland composed over six hundred songs including "Baby Love," "I Can't Help Myself," "Heatwave," "Come See About Me" and "You Can't Hurry Love."

SMOTHERS BROTHERS, Tom and Dick, were a successful comedy-singing team when they were offered their own variety series, the now-legendary "Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour." The television series proved too controversial for the network and was abruptly cancelled in 1969.

We'll take a SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60s look at the early career of STEVIE WONDER, who at the age of thirteen, had a #1 song with "Fingertips, Part Two." His other 60s hits included "I Was Made To Love Her," "For Once in My Life," "Yester-me, Yester-you, Yesterday" and "My Cherie Amour."

Also, we'll journey back to 1964 to look at the events that were headlining the news during the first week of April. We'll hear the top songs in the country during that week nineteen years ago. And as always with each show, Great Movie Themes of the Decade and our listeners talk about their favorite memories of the 60s.
