PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

SHOW #K832-3

AIRDATE: APRIL 16 & 17, 1983

HOSTED BY GARY OWENS

BOBBY VINTON remembers the valuable advice he received from the President of his national fan club that was to catapult him to stardom with hits like "Roses Are Red" and "I Know How You Love Me."

ADAM WEST recalls some funny moments from his television series "Batman" which first aired in 1966. The interest in the Batman character was shared not only by kids but by people of all ages who enjoyed the combination of fantasy, fun and mystery.

We'll take a SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60s look at the career of GERRY & THE PACEMAKERS, who were signed in 1962 by Beatles' manager Brian Epstein and brought to producer George Martin. GERRY & THE PACEMAKERS scored big hits with "How Do You Do It," "Don't Let the Sun Catch You Crying" and "Ferry Cross the Mersey."

Also, we'll journey back to 1965 to look at the events that were headlining the news during the third week of April. We'll hear the top songs in the nation during that week eighteen years ago. And as always with each show, Great Movie Themes of the Decade and our listeners talk about their favorite memories of the 60s.
