

SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60s

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

SHOW #832-12

AIRDATE: JUNE 18 & 19, 1983

ELLIOT MINTZ, the famous radio personality who became friends with many of the stars he met, remembers a personal yet humorous moment with JOHN LENNON. He also recalls meeting MICK JAGGER and BOB DYLAN, and gives his impressions of these two legends.

GARY SMITH, the creator and producer of the "Hullabaloo" rock television show which aired in the mid-1960s, talks about how he was able to present superstars-to-be in a professional format. Guests on the program included SIMON & GARFUNKEL, THE SUPREMES, and MARIANNE FAITHFULL.

We'll look at the career of THE LOVIN' SPOONFUL, a band which formed in 1964, and had hits with "Do You Believe In Magic," "Summer In The City," and "Six O'Clock." Singer/guitarist/harmonica player JOHN SEBASTIAN began the group after meeting guitarist ZAL YANOVSKY. With the addition of bassist STEVE BOONE and drummer JOE BUTLER, the group began gigging around the New York area and finally landed a record contract.

We're continuing with our updates on how listeners can win a trip to England in the SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60s Beatles Classic Sweepstakes. Plus, we'll journey back to the fourth week of June, 1967 and glance at the top three songs from that week and the events which were making headlines that week.

NOTE: NINO TEMPO AND APRIL STEVENS were listed as being on Show #832-11 in last week's program highlights. However, due to a schedule change, the guest is PAUL PETERSEN, who starred as Jeff Stone on "The Donna Reed Show" which ran from 1958 to 1966.
