

SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60s

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

SHOW 833-2

AIRDATE: JULY 9 & 10, 1983

ERIC BURDON, leader of THE ANIMALS - who made such hits as "We Gotta Get Out Of This Place" and "It's My Life," tells us that if it hadn't been for band member ALAN PRICE'S government job, the Animals may have beaten THE BEATLES to popularity. He also recalls how his band came about their name.

Original Mousketeers SHERRY ALBARONE, TOMMY COLE, and BONNI KERN share some of their memories of life in the Magic Kingdom and of the original Mousketeer himself, WALT DISNEY.

ARETHA FRANKLIN, the "First Lady of Soul," is the subject of a special salute this week. For nearly twenty years, she has been a hitmaker, with such songs as "Respect," "Chain of Fools," and "Think" assuring her a place in musical history.

We'll go back to the second week of July, 1969 and remember a few of the events making headlines plus play the top three songs in the nation for that week. All this and more can be heard on SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60s.
