

SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60s

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

SHOW 833-9

AIRDATE: AUGUST 27 & 28, 1983

HANK BALLARD, the man who wrote the hit song "The Twist," discusses how his version was ignored while, two years later, CHUBBY CHECKER made it a smash. He also tells us how the song, which ignited an international dance craze, was written.

We'll take a special look at the career of THE MONKEES, the television-created quartet who became a worldwide phenomenon. From 1966 to 1968, the Monkees were one of the hottest pop acts due to such hits as "Valleri," "I'm A Believer," "Pleasant Valley Sunday," and "Last Train To Clarksville."

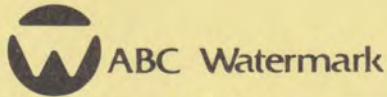

GYPSY BOOTS, the California health food expert who became a nationally known celebrity after an appearance on "The Steve Allen Show," recalls how Allen found him. He also remembers how those appearances on television led him to form his own band.

We'll go back to the fifth week of August, 1964, examine some of the news events of the time and play the top three songs in the nation that week. All these memories and more, on SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60s.
