

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

SHOW 833-12

AIRDATE: SEPT. 17 & 18, 1983

JIMMY JOHNSON, the guitarist who was part of many legendary Muscle Shoals sessions, and CHRIS HUSTON, the record producer who was part of the scene revolving around the Cavern Club in Liverpool, tell us about their memories of those myth-making days. Johnson worked with such stars as WILSON PICKETT, ARETHA FRANKLIN, and ARTHUR CONLEY and remembers the stories behind some of their incredible hits. Back in the early 1960s, Chris Huston, then a member of THE UNDERTAKERS, sometimes shared the bill at the Cavern Club with an unknown group called THE BEATLES. He recalls what it was like to work at the Cavern and gives us his early impressions of Liverpool's most famous export.

We'll salute THE HOLLIES, the veteran British band featuring GRAHAM NASH. The group, which recently reformed and now has a hit with THE SUPREMES' "Stop In The Name Of Love," first came to attention in the mid-1960s as part of the British Invasion. The group had such hits as "Bus Stop," "Stop Stop Stop," and "Carrie-Anne." After Nash's departure in the late 1960s, the band continued to hit the charts with "Long Cool Woman" and "The Air That I Breathe."

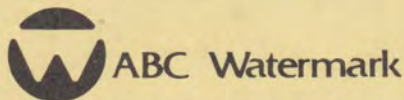

Our attentions will turn to films as we take a look at THE TRIP, a counterculture film from 1967 starring PETER FONDA, BRUCE DERN, DENNIS HOPPER, and SUSAN STRASBERG, with a script by JACK NICHOLSON. In the film, Fonda plays a director so freaked out by Hollywood that he goes to a club called The Freakout and gets involved in psychedelia.

We'll go back to the third week of September, 1967, look at the events of the day, and countdown the top three songs from that week. It's all on SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60s.
