

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

SHOW 834-1

AIRDATE: OCTOBER 1 & 2, 1983

JOSE FELICIANO, the folk singer who scored big hits with inventive reworkings of "Light My Fire" and "California Dreamin'," tells us how he got discovered. He also explains why program directors flipped over "California Dreamin'". . .and played the B-side, "Light My Fire."

JOAN RIVERS, the comedienne who is now a sensation, remembers her days in the Greenwich Village folk scene in the 1960s. For Rivers, those early days were filled with struggle and disappointment. Can we talk?

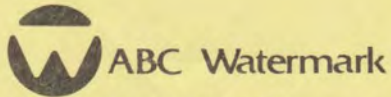

We'll salute RAY CHARLES, the legendary singer and pianist who had such hits as "Georgia On My Mind," "You Don't Know Me," and "I Can't Stop Loving You."

We'll check into the infamous Bates Motel in search of a movie memory. Also, we'll go back in time to the first week in October, 1964 and look at some of the events shaping our lives and play the top three songs from that week.

All this and more can be heard every week on SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60s.
