

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Show 834-10

AIRDATE: December 3&4, 1983

This coming Thursday, December 8th, the entire rock world will pause to pay homage to one of its true legends, Jim Morrison of the Doors. Were it not for his tragic death in Paris, it would've been his 40th birthday. We'll look back to the day after his 27th birthday when a security guard mistook Morrison for a fan and maced the Doors' lead singer.

We'll also note birthday wishes to Dennis Wilson of the Beach Boys who turns 39, and Chris Hillman of the Byrds, who will be 41.

We'll look back on a nerve-racking week for the Rolling Stones. On December 5th, 1968, Mick and the boys held a true Elizabethan beggars' banquet for their new album, "Beggar's Banquet." It's the 16th anniversary of the "Their Satanic Majesty's Request" LP turning gold before it was released and 18 years ago this week Keith Richards was nearly electrocuted on stage by an ungrounded mike.

The three top songs, from the first week in December, 1969 were "Come Together" the Beatles, "Leaving on a Jet Plane" by Peter, Paul and Mary and number one "Na Na Hey Hey Kiss Him Goodbye" by Steam.

All this and more can be heard every week on SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60s.
