PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Show K841-4

AIRDATE: January 28/29 1984

This week host Gary Owens' look back includes a conversation with a drummer with some pretty good side men, a look at some pretty good performers that didn't win the Grammy and a look at a pretty good newsmagazine. All for you on SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60's.

One thing that made the Beatles such a super group were the song writing abilities of John and Paul. Their songs are now standards heard in dentist chairs and elevators. One group member that worked just as hard at song-writing was Ringo. Though sometimes it might sound like a Jerry Lee Lewis B side, Ringo finally got the hang of it. In fact his "Octopus's Garden" appears on the legendary Abbey Road album. And there's not a hint of Jerry.

Besides it being the birthday of one half of the Everly Brothers, (that would be Don who just turned 47) we also celebrate the 35th anniversary of the 45 r.p.m. record. Before 1949 singles were played on 78 r.p.m. discs that tended to break if you breathed in their direction.

There are thousands of groups and single acts that make records. But only a select few will be lucky enough to win the Grammy for their efforts. There are some thought that we assume have made that elite club. But when we tell you that the Who, Smokey, and B.B. haven't got their membership cards yet you might be surprised.

One place we've read all about the stars and superstars of music and entertainment and what they're really thinking and doing is in Rolling Stones Magazine. We'll talk with Ben Fong-Torres one of the contributors who's talked to Mick and Paul, that's Jagger and McCartney by the way.

Our movie memory is the Oscar winning "Elmer Gantry." This winner starred Burt Lancaster as the huckster turned evangelist. Jean Simmons played the innocent Sister Sharon Falconer and tried to keep Elmer on the straight and true path.

The top three records for this 4th week of 1969 included a duo by two groups at number three. Of course it's the Temptations and the Supremes doing "I'm Gonna Make You Love Me." At number two Tommy James and the Shondells with "Crimson and Clover" and the number one record the marvelous one Marvin Gaye and "I Heard It Through The Grapevine."

All this and more can be heard every week on SOUNDTRACK OF THE 60's.
